Carol - So far as I know. I will ask Baker Tilly to double check with DOH.

If a person is unclear concerning election law provisions, the Election Division can be used as an interpretive resource. However, where your legal rights are concerned, you must consult with your own attorney to be fully and properly advised.

You're most certainly welcome. The "boatload" received in our DOH hopper that I handled (which were M-Z alphabet) were from 2008 and 2010 only. Does that mean that I received all the deceased in 2009 that I am supposed to?
